Dear Dr Cukic

Earlier this year we initiated a new scheme at Trinity College for 'Inspirational Teachers', whereby first-year undergraduates were invited to nominate a teacher or careers adviser who particularly inspired their passion for a subject, encouraged them to apply to Cambridge, or supported them through the application process. We agreed to make up to three awards each year – with £500 going to the teacher's school or college and £75 in book tokens to the students whose nominations are successful.

I am very pleased to say that you were nominated by your former student, Aleksandra Dokic, and that this nomination has now been successful. Let me offer you my warm congratulations. We are conscious of how much we owe to the schools and teachers who send so many gifted applicants to us. We would like now to invite you to a dinner in honour of the three award-holders and the students who nominated them, in Trinity College, on the evening of Friday 19 May 2017. We can offer you overnight accommodation for that Friday, and we can pay your travel expenses to and from Cambridge. We very much hope you will be able to accept. If you have any special dietary requirements or restrictions, please let me know.

You will see from the terms of the scheme above that the award of £500 will go to your school or college. I would be grateful if you could let me know where we should make this payment, preferably by providing details of a named account to which we can transfer the funds.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely
